

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment
Grade 2

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: What is a treaty?

---

---

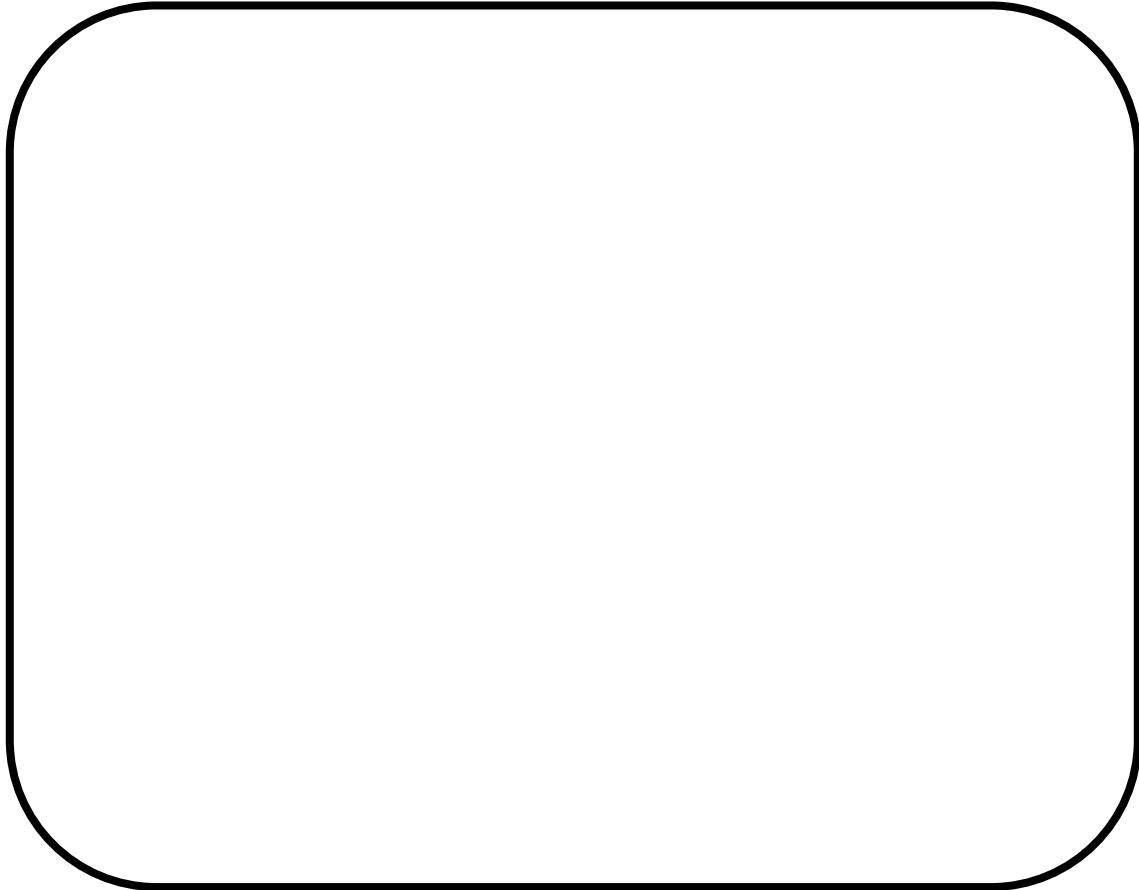

---

---

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Student has not yet displayed an accurate understanding of the concept of treaty.	Student explains that a treaty is either a promise or an agreement.	Student can name groups who signed treaties in Canada. They understand that a treaty is an agreement between two or more sovereign nations.	Student understands that a treaty is an agreement between two or more sovereign nations. They know that treaties serve a variety of purposes and recognize some determining factors that contributed to the numbered treaties in Canada.

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: Name at least one Indigenous group in Saskatchewan and explain why they are important.

---

---

---

---

1 - Not yet meeting	2 - meeting expectations	3 - fully meeting	4 - exceeding expectations
Student is not yet able to provide an accurate Indigenous group and no reason is given to their importance.	Student provided an accurate Indigenous group but the reason is inaccurate or not supported.	Student provided an accurate Indigenous group and a solid reason is supported.	Student accurately provided 2 or more groups and gave an in-depth reason including support.

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: Why is the circle important to Indigenous people?

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Student has made no attempt or provided an inaccurate answer.	Student completed an accurate circle with four equal parts of a whole.	Student completed an accurate circle and their explanation describes the importance of balance.	Student completed one or more accurate examples of the circle and their explanation describes the interconnectedness and importance of balance.

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: Match four (4) animal pictures with the correct Cree word.

Comments:

---

---

---

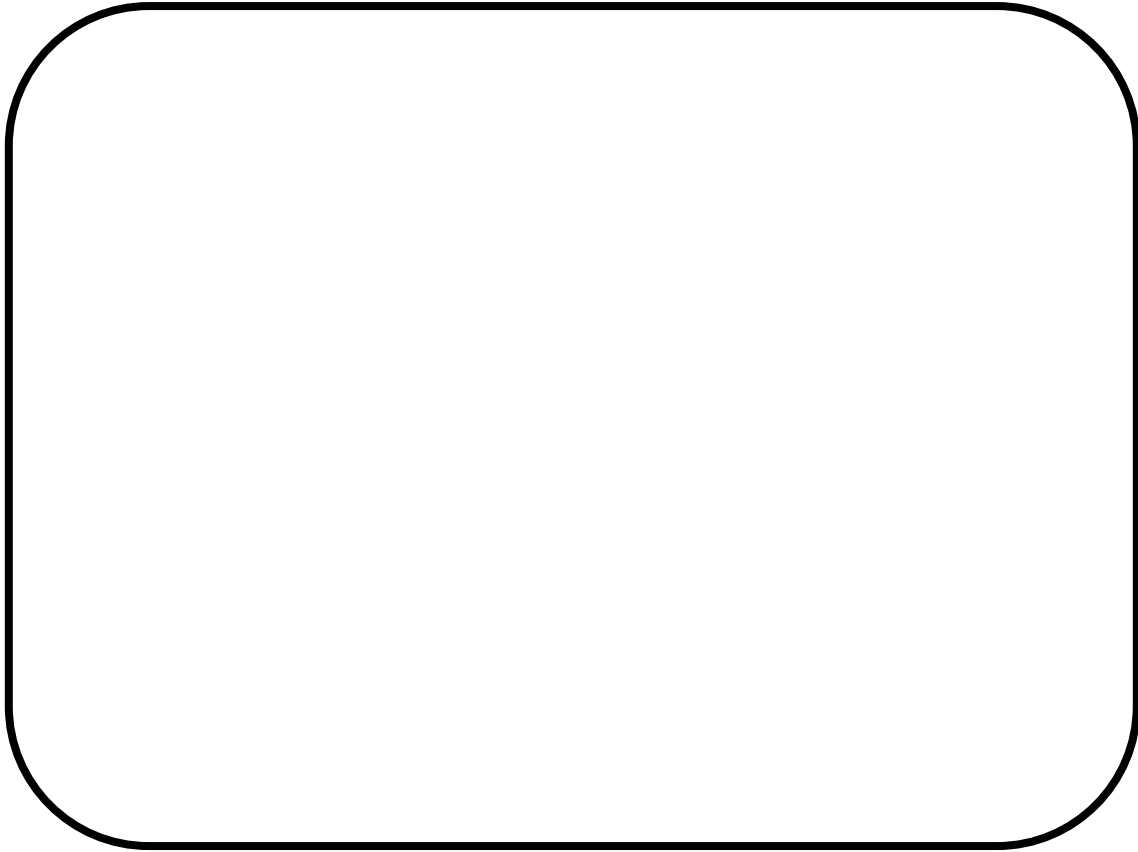

---

1 - Not yet meeting	2 - Meeting Expectations	3 - Fully Meeting	4 - Exceeding Expectations
Student has a total of 1 or less correct answers.	Student has a total of 2 correct answers.	Student has a total of 3 correct answers	Student has all 4 answers correct.

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment
Grade 4

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: What is a treaty?

---

---

---

---

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Student has not yet displayed an accurate understanding of the concept of treaty.	Student explains that a treaty is either a promise or an agreement.	Student can name groups who signed treaties in Canada. They understand that a treaty is an agreement between two or more sovereign nations.	Student knows that a treaty is an agreement between two or more sovereign nations. They know that treaties serve a variety of purposes and they recognize some determining factors that contributed to the numbered treaties in Canada.

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: Name at least one Indigenous group in Canada and explain why they are important.

1 - Not yet meeting	2 - meeting expectations	3 - fully meeting	4 - exceeding expectations
Student is not yet able to provide an accurate Indigenous group and no reason is given to their importance.	Student provided an accurate Indigenous group but the reason is inaccurate or not supported.	Student provided an accurate Indigenous group and a solid reason is supported.	Student accurately provided 2 or more groups and gave an in-depth reason including support.

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: Why is the circle important to Indigenous people?

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Student has made no attempt or provided an inaccurate answer.	Student completed an accurate circle with four equal parts of a whole.	Student completed an accurate circle and their explanation describes the importance of balance.	Student completed one or more accurate examples of the circle and their explanation describes the interconnectedness and importance of balance.

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: Match six (6) weather pictures with their correct Cree word description.

Comments:

---

---

---

---

1 - Not yet meeting	2 - Meeting Expectations	3 - Fully Meeting	4 - Exceeding Expectations
Student has 2 or less correct answers.	Student has 3 correct answers.	Student has 4 to 5 correct answers	Student has all 6 answers correct.

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment
Grade 8

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: What is a treaty?

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Student has not yet displayed an accurate understanding of the concept of treaty.	Student explains that a treaty is either a promise or an agreement.	Student can name groups who signed treaties in Canada. They understand that a treaty is an agreement between two or more sovereign nations.	Student knows that a treaty is an agreement between two or more sovereign nations. They know that treaties serve a variety of purposes and they recognize some determining factors that contributed to the numbered treaties in Canada.

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: Name at least one Indigenous group outside of Canada and explain why they are important.

1 - Not yet meeting	2 - meeting expectations	3 - fully meeting	4 - exceeding expectations
Student is not yet able to provide an accurate Indigenous group and no reason is given to their importance.	Student provided an accurate Indigenous group but the reason is inaccurate or not supported.	Student provided an accurate Indigenous group and a solid reason is supported.	Student accurately provided 2 or more groups and gave an in-depth reason including support.

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: Why is the circle important to Indigenous people?

Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Level 4
Student has made no attempt or provided an inaccurate answer.	Student completed an accurate circle with four equal parts of a whole.	Student completed an accurate circle and their explanation describes the importance of balance.	Student completed one or more accurate examples of the circle and their explanation describes the interconnectedness and importance of balance.

Indigenous Studies Pre Assessment

Question: Match eight (8) action words or verb pictures with the correct Cree word.

Comments:

---

---

---

---

1 - Not yet meeting	2 - Meeting Expectations	3 - Fully Meeting	4 - Exceeding Expectations
Student has 3 or less correct answers.	Student has 4 correct answers.	Student has 5 to 7 correct answers	Student has all 8 answers correct.